> Hi there,
> I wanted to share with you – I have walked back and forth to H&H for media event this week and wanted to mention that there are very scary, loud guys that hang out around TCL Chinese Forecourt, near the Michael Jackson star. I have been able to avoid the Blvd for a while so not sure if they are new, but they use DISGUSTING language, are purposely loud, and very intimidating. They are a group of African American guys who have tattoos on their faces and hand out CDs and look like authentic gang-bangers. I was nervous for my own safety and saw tourists/families cower in fear as they worked their way through the group. Wondering if there is anything that I could gain support from our tourism committee on as this is happening in front of a world renown destination and on our Walk of Fame. Seems like a new group, but again, not certain.
